Re: Rendition

I wrote to you on 19 January about the separate arrangements, beyond the Detainee Inquiry, put in place by the MOD in relation to military detention operations in Iraq and Afghanistan after 2003 (attached). I have not yet received a reply. I would be grateful for a response, not least because the issue of detainee transfers is one of particular importance to the formulation of the Inquiry's terms of reference.

Yours,

Andrew
